☐ Q1 Research Informed ConsentPurpose:

We are conducting a research study to examine people's intuitions and attitudes about philosophical questions.

Procedures:

Participation in this study will involve filling out a questionnaire. We anticipate that your involvement will require approximately 8-10 minutes. You will be compensated financially for participating. Participants must be at least 18 years of age to participate.

Risks and Benefits:

You will be paid for participation through Amazon's Mechanical Turk. Further, we hope that our results will add to scientific knowledge about people's intuitions and attitudes.

Confidentiality:

All of your responses will be anonymous. Only the researchers involved in this study and those responsible for research oversight will have access to the information you provide.

Voluntary Participation:

Participation in this study is completely voluntary. You are free to decline to participate, to end participation at any time for any reason, or to refuse to answer any individual question without penalty.

Questions:

If you have any questions about this study, you may contact Brian Earp at brian.earp@yale.edu

This study has been approved and exempted by the Human Subjects Committee at Yale University (45 CFR 46.101(b)(2)).

By clicking the arrow below, you consent to participate.

☐ Q6 Next, we'd like you to think back to these successes and answer three questions:

1. How personally responsible were you for bringing that success about?
2. How much credit do you feel you can take for that success?
3. How much praise do you feel you deserve for that success?

☐ Q131 We're nearly at the end of the survey. First, however, we'd like you to answer some questions as before, but this time about three failures from your life.

Please again remember that this is anonymous and we are not concerned with the specific details. We ask you to write these below so we can ask some questions about them, but the specifics are not important: what is important is that these three things are something you consider a failure so that we can ask you the same general questions about these as we did earlier for successes.
